EUROPE BECAME THE EPICENTER FOR THE COVID-19 OUTBREAK ACCORDING TO WHO

1500 NEW CASES JUST IN ONE DAY IN SPAIN

Paris, Washington DC, 14.03.2020, 16:27 Time

USPA NEWS - According to WHO, Europe became the epicenter for COVID-19 outbreak. The coronavirus epidemic is advancing at high speed: worldwide, more than 140,000 people have been infected and more than 5,300 have died. In over 120 countries Confined, Italy has exceeded 1000 dead. In France, 3661 cases are recorded and 79 deaths but the epidemic « is only at its beginning ». President Macron said. Since the announcements and measures are succeeding since the French President Macron addressed the nation in a primetime, TV, speech from the Elysee Palace, on Saturday, March 14 at 2pm. Meanwhile, the mayoral elections are to be held tomorrow Sunday all across France. The Interior Minister, Christophe Castaner, said the French are worried, and this is legitimate » he also added. The Louvre Museum, as well as the Eiffel Tower and the Chateau de Versailles are closed until further notice. Traffic is slowing in France, but that on Monday, public transport serving reedits extant gives the presidential measure to close iceless, and universities, following the "greatest health crisis in the country, of the century" as said President Macron.[Updated on Friday March 14 at 3:30 pm].

EUROPE BECOMES THE EPICENTER OF THE WORLD FOR COVID-19

Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus, Director General of WHO, called on the countries concerned to "detect, isolate, test and treat each case". Indeed, there are more cases every day in Europe than in China, at the height of its epidemic

And for a few days all over Europe, unprecedented measures are multiplying: all of Italy, one of the countries most affected by the new planet, is placed in quarantine, Spain declared this Friday a state of emergency, while 'in France, schools, universities, nurseries are closed' until further notice. Likewise, gatherings of more than 100 people are now prohibited. While China, where the Covid-19 left in December 2019, seems to be coming out of the COVI crisis¹⁹, since its number of cases decreases every day, while in continental Europe, the opposite phenomenon is observed, in particular in Italy and Spain.

Europe is the new China "[?]. So spoke on Thursday the American director of the Centers for Disease Detection and Prevention (CDC), a few hours before Donald Trump's decision to close the United States to Europeans.
