Speaking up Against Impunity...

In Chenganoor, India Kerala Alappuzha

District, a neighbor molested parents as well as children aged 10, 8, and 6 by firing crackers. The police had not taken the case seriously and have failed in their duty by neglecting the case, due to which give way to the D.Y.S.P. office siege lead by IHRC SMM and protesting against the DYSP office for inaction.

For this course and impact of the protest, action has been taken by respective offices, and bail was neglected for the perpetrator by the District Court and High Court as he was pushed to remand by making moves at respective courts.

It was an Honour and another milestone achievement for IHRC in India for speaking against impunity.
